

The Institute on Black Life Center for Africa and the Diaspora

Presents

Spring 2012 Colloquium Series

“Because When God is too Busy: Haiti, me and THE WORLD”

February 16 TAR 120
6-9 pm

Workshop February 17
Grace Allen Room
10:00am– 12:00 pm

Dr. Gina Ulysse

Dr. Gina Ulysse is a professor of Anthropology, Gender, African-American Studies and Feminist and Sexuality Studies at Wesleyan

Sandra Amrhein is a graduate student at USF. She has been a journalist for more than 17 years. For the last 10 year she has worked at the St. Petersburg Times, specializing in immigration coverage.

Sandra Amrhein

Green Card Stories
Book presentation and a panel discussion on immigration

February 22 CGS 131
6:00 pm

“Of Hip Hop Bling and Punjabi
Bhangra: Gender and Modernity in the New Times”

March 7 at 11:00 a.m.
Grace Allen Room

Dr. Madhavi Murty

Dr. Madhavi Murty, is a Visiting Faculty member at Yale University in the South Asian Studies Council. Her research interests combine feminism, gender, cultural studies, popular culture and Nationalism.

Institute on Black Life
Bridging the University and the Community

USF UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH FLORIDA